

LOCAL NEWS.

POLITICAL ORGANIZATION.—A political organization has been formed in this place with the following officers:

President—S. Ferguson Beach. Vice Presidents—Messrs. J. M. Stewart, G. F. Watson, W. Willoughby, John Hawxhurst and J. D. Adams. Secretary—B. W. Hunter. Treasurer—Wm. L. Ives. The principles of this organization are embodied in the resolutions adopted, to wit:—1st, that it is essential "to prevent the state of Virginia from coming under the control of those who have voluntarily engaged in promoting the late rebellion;" 2d, that it now looks as if this control might be effected; 3rd, "that the right to change the fundamental law is inherent in the people, and if not delegated, may be exercised by them at any time, and in the exercise of it all male citizens of the age of twenty-one years, who have not forfeited their rights by crime or otherwise, are entitled to participate;" and 4th, "that the Constitution of Virginia should be so amended as to confer the right of suffrage upon and restrict it to loyal male citizens of the State, without regard to color; that such amendment is just in itself, and is indispensable to a sound reorganization of the State government."

We understand that the new Delegates to the General Assembly from this place, have received no notice of a call for an extra session of the Virginia Legislature; and it is now said that no extra session at this time, is anticipated.

P. S. Since the above was in type, we learn that the members of the former legislature have been invited by Gov. Peirpoint to assemble in Richmond, and the former delegates from this county leave here to-day for that city.

Mr. John T. Taylor, of Alexandria, Va., was adroitly swindled out of $440 on Saturday in Baltimore by means of the confidence game. Whilst waiting for the opening of a warehouse on Baltimore street, Mr. T. was accosted by a stranger, who on the pledge of a check for $4,000 borrowed $440, and then made his escape. It is needless to say the check was bogus.

RELIGIOUS.—The Right Reverend, the Bishop of Richmond, delivered a very able discourse, last evening at St. Mary's Church, on "The Rule of Faith," in which he gave a luminous exposition of the views entertained by the Catholic Church on that subject. He will preach again this evening at 8 o'clock.

St. Mary's Church, in this place, was robbed on Friday night last, of about $150, the amount of collections taken up for the poor. No clue has yet been discovered to the perpetrators of this robbery.

The weather has been warm and sultry for a day or two past. A shower has fallen, but more rain is wanted for the gardens and fields.

The contracts for flour, for the Subsistence Dep't. in Washington, were made yesterday, at from $8.75 to $8.40 per bbl.

Mrs. L. H. Sigourney, the poetess, died at Hartford, Conn., on Sunday, in the 75th year of her age.

The steamer Keyport is not running between Washington and Alexandria.

Gold, in New York, to-day, 142.

The Petersburg News has an article condemnatory of the charge of Judge Underwood, at Norfolk, in reference to Gen. Lee, &c. It says that the proceedings are not approved by the citizens—and that the U. S. military authorities have not countenanced any movements against Gen. Lee since his surrender. The News is mistaken in saying that Judge U. formerly lived in Occoquan. He formerly lived in Clarke county. Mr. Underwood from Occoquan is the U. S. Marshal for Virginia.

Gov. SMITH, of Va., has returned to Richmond, and reported to Gen. Patrick, by whom he was paroled, and ordered to report daily.—He was on the street last Friday, looking very well, and has never been very far from Richmond.

A meeting has been held at Spotsylvania county, Va., at which, on motion of Mr. John L. Marye, Jr., resolutions were passed, approving of the views of Gov. Peirpoint, as expressed in several of his recent speeches.
